

ARE YOU READY TO FINALLY BREAKTHROUGH?

With any high achiever, the internal battle is the toughest one to conquer. That is my favorite battlefield. By offering an honest and consistent point of view, I guide you to a place of understanding yourself that you have been searching for, but have never yet experienced before.

Once we have that understanding, we then release the issues at hand and create a plan to move you forward toward your next stage.

From there, I help in guiding you to set and achieve your goals, finding that clarity, fulfillment and balance you've been waiting for.

- ✓ Uncover the true challenges holding you back
- ✓ Address and release your deepest issues
- ✓ Make long-lasting change to move forward

“

Preston facilitated an NLP breakthrough session for me and I am very pleased with the results. He has a rare balance of compassion and timeliness.

I highly recommend him if you want to get quick results that are deep and long lasting.

In having a high performance mindset, one of my biggest struggles has always been looking to the horizon and never being content in the present.

After my breakthrough session with Preston, I'm still just as driven and focused on achievement, but I now find so much more fulfillment and joy with where I am now.
